

EASTER

IN

NETHERLANDS

Easter Day in the Netherlands

- Easter Sunday is a festive, family orientated day in the Netherlands. People prepare festive breakfasts, brunches or lunches. They may also search for and eat chocolate eggs that are supposedly delivered by the Easter hare.

Easter Day in the Netherlands

- Brunch:

It's an extended breakfast with all the family and friends on Easter Sunday. At the table you will find all kinds of rolls, cheese, ham, eggs, eggs and eggs.

- Decorations:

The Dutch are very keen on Easter eggs and spring-related decorations, and many homes will put up willow branches hung with tiny wooden eggs and bows

Easter Day in the Netherlands

- Egg painting:

Dutch also like to paint boiled eggs in pretty patterns. Easter egg painting is number 5 on the Dutch folklore centre's list of the top 10 Dutch traditions.

